Gentlemen:

Referring to the article with reference to the medals published by you, and which was shown on the first page of The Independent of July 12th, will you please let me know the price of these medals?

Yours very truly,

G. B. DEALEY,
Vice-President & General Manager.

August 1, 1919.

Dallas, Texas.

Dear Sir:-

Referring to your letter of July 28th I presume the medal referred to as having been reproduced in the Independent of July 12th must have been our Peace Medal. Although I have not seen this number of the Independent. Our Society issues medals from time to time, and the price is usually ten (10) dollars for copies in silver and five (5) dollars for bronze medals. These are not usually sold outside our membership but the Peace Medal was made an exception of this rule by action of our Council and bronze copies may be had by any one for five (5) dollars. I am enclosing a circular illustrating and describing the piece and should be glad to have your order.

If you are interested in medals might I suggest that you permit me to propose your name as an Associate Member of our Society? You would then be enabled to subscribe for any of our medals that might be issued without being under any obligation to do so. You would also receive the American Journal of Numismatics published annually. I should be very happy to present your name at the next meeting of our Council if you will kindly sign the enclosed card.

Very respectfully yours,

Secretary.
